

THANK YOU FRIEND

Dear friend,

finally I have landed in Italy, I'm very happy, I can't believe it. I'm here full of hopes. My hope of freedom, my hope of a better life, a happy life where to fight for realizing my dreams.

Where I was there weren't dreams, you could hear only the sound of bombs, the smell of poverty. My poor Country!

But thanks to you I've come here and now I'm really excited to see what it'll happen.

For many years I've been imagining how it would be to stay here and now I can say that it's something unbelievable!

Every smell, every sound, everything seems fantastic. It's like to live in a dream.

But before arriving in Italy I faced a long, tiring and unforgettable trip. I was on a boat with a lot of people coming from different places, kids, ill old people and pregnant women. We were in bad conditions and all piled up. I still have that terrible stench in my nose. I don't know how long we've been in that boat living horrible moments, seeing the driver of boat threatening mothers of throwing their children overboard if they didn't stop crying. I'll never forget their voices!

But the hope has given us the force to get over all this.

Now another chapter is opening, I'll look up for a job, then I would like to meet you to thank you for your precious help and for giving me the strength to face this adventure.

Thank you friend
