

IMMIGRATION

“MY EXPERIENCE AS AN IMMIGRANT”

Nowadays, immigration is quite common considering that a lot of people leave their countries in search of a better life in a foreign country. This is my case, as I immigrated with my parents, who decided to give me a better life in a new place. However, immigration like all things, has its positive parts and some negative aspects.

Firstly, my parents found better jobs and there were some people who helped us to settle and always gave us their support whenever we needed it. When I first started school, the teachers helped me with the language and that made it easier for me in my new country. Immediately I made friends, which also helped me to integrate.

Secondly, I found it hard to leave behind the rest of my family and friends and come to a different country with unfamiliar people. Furthermore, there were occasions when some people made me feel isolated and it was at times like this that I missed my country and friends the most. Also, some people treated me like a criminal and tried to look down on me, as if I were an immigrant who is only here to do bad in their country.

In conclusion, immigration has its financial benefits. It has disadvantages as well as far as the emotional aspect is concerned. Therefore, when you decide to immigrate you have to be prepared to face up to everything immigration involves, both the good treatment as well as
